Birds' twittering, the rushing of the wind in the huge trees. A bit farther away: The sounds of daily life.

The clock in the park is set by the sun here. The three-part building is shines brightly, ingrained in the old sandstone – a castle.
Faraway, the sky is touching the ground. Width and yet Switzerland – the region of Lake Constance.
